Criminal Convictions

* Indicates a required field

Have you been convicted of a criminal offense?*

☐ Yes ☐ NoIf yes, describe in detail below the circumstances surrounding such offense, including the date and location of the offense, the name of the court, etc.

(limit 255 characters)

Important Note: Do not include convictions that were annulled, sealed, or expunged, or convictions that resulted in referral to and participation in a pretrial or posttrial diversion program. (Applicants in California, Illinois, Connecticut, Georgia, Hawaii and Massachusetts should read the information below before answering this question.)

Conviction of a crime will not necessarily disqualify you from employment. Factors such as the age and time of the offense, seriousness and nature of the violation, job relatedness, and rehabilitation will be considered when making any employment decisions.

California Applicants: This does not include convictions under California Health & Safety Code §§11357(b) or (c), 11360(b) (formerly subdivision (c) of section 11360), 11364, 11365, or 11550 related to marijuana offenses that occurred two or more years before the application.

Connecticut Applicants: Applicants are not required to disclose the existence of any arrest, criminal charge, or conviction, the records of which have been erased. Criminal records subject to erasure are records pertaining to a finding of delinquency or the fact that a child was a member of a family with service needs, an adjudication as a youthful offender, a criminal charge that has been dismissed or nolle (not prosecuted), a criminal charge for which the person was found not guilty, or a conviction for which the offender received an absolute pardon. Any person whose criminal records have been erased is deemed to have never been arrested within the meaning of the law as it applies to the particular proceedings that have been erased, and may so swear under oath.

Georgia Applicants: Applicants are not required to disclose information pertaining to any "first offender discharge."

Hawaii Applicants: Do not answer this question at this time. You will only have to answer this question if you receive a conditional offer of employment. Answer "No" if a conditional offer of employment has not been made.

Illinois Applicants: Under Illinois Public Act 93-0211, you are not required to disclose sealed or expunged records.

Massachusetts Applicants: Applicants for employment with a sealed record on file with the Commissioner of Probation may answer "no record" with respect to an inquiry relating to prior arrests, criminal court appearances, or convictions. In addition, Massachusetts Applicants for employment may answer "no record" with respect to any inquiry relative to prior arrests, court appearances and adjudications in all cases of delinquency or as a child in need of services which did not result in a complaint transferred to the superior court for criminal prosecution. Massachusetts applicants should not disclose information regarding first-time misdemeanor convictions for drunkenness, simple assault, speeding, minor traffic violations, affray or disturbance of the peace.
